Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
  - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 4. Claim 26 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kaplan (U S 873,605) in view of Kara (5,717,597).

Regarding claim 26, Kaplan does not disclose the step of determining said at least one characteristic comprises digitally scanning said personal image.

On the other hand Kara teaches: The step of determining said at least one characteristic comprises digitally scanning said personal image (Column 6, lines 66-67 and column 7, lines 1-7).

It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Kaplan's invention according to the teachings of Kara system and method for printing personalized postage indicia on greeting card, because use of optical scanner or digital camera which forms an image of object which is then subjected to compression operation and substantially stored and are used to create a digitized documents, characters and a computer which executes algorithms includes preprocessing such as image segmentation. Digital scanner is a high resolution digitizer and is useful for translating between paper documents and electronic information.
